

The Future of Development Film in Africa

Communicating For Change (CFC) Is organizing a two-day conference on The Future of Development Film in Africa, in partnership with the Television Trust for The Environment (UK), and the Lagos Business School Pan-African University.

Conference Venue:

Pan-African University, Lekki Expressway, Lagos

Date:

Dec 1&2, 2005

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

International speakers from the UK, the US and across Africa

Presentations will include:

- International Funding for Film Initiatives
- Intellectual Property Rights & Piracy
- Case Studies of Innovative Film Projects
- Media Management and The Entertainment Industry
- Managing Creative Initiatives

Conference Participants: Speakers from University of Navarre (Spain), Intermedia (Italy), World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO Geneva) BBC World Service Trust, MNET and Independent film producers and communications specialists from Nigeria, Sierra Leone, Ghana, the Gambia, Uganda, Kenya, Malawi, Lesotho, Namibia, Zimbabwe, Zambia, South Africa and Tanzania.

The conference is open to professionals in the Film, Television and Advertising industries as well as professionals from the Private, Public and Civil Society Sectors.

For more information and to register contact:

www.cfcnigeria.org info@cfcnigeria.org Tel: 01-7766916, 0803 3272850, 0802 3331045

Conference fee: N5000

PAN-AFRICAN UNIVERSITY

COMMUNICATING
FOR CHANGE